LETTER OF THANKS.—We give place

grand ball at Kittrell's:

KITTRELL SPRINGS, July 26, 1872.
Maj. T. H. Blackball.

DEAR SIR:—We beg leave to tender to you, and to your estimable lady, our sincere thanks for the pleasure afforded by the elegant entertainment and party given at Kittrells on the 26th and 27th inst., complimentary to Hon. M. W.
Ransom. In giving expression to this sentiment, we represent the universal feeling of your numerous guests, who enjoyed the festivities on this occasion with so much grace and hospitality.

Very respectfully,
(Signed)

OUR TOWN CLOCK.—We call the attention of the Mayor and Commissioners to the Town Clock.

When the market was built, the clock could be seen from all the points of the compass. It was intended as a convenience to our citizens, and they regret that it is no longer so. Owing to the improvements continually going on in our city, the buildings erected near the market house have concealed it, save only from the East and West. We would suggest that the steeple be raised higher so that our people may no longer be prevented from availing themselves of this convenience.

THE DAILY NEWS.

VOL. I. RALEIGH, N. C. WEDNESDAY MORNING, JULY 31, 1872. NO. 130.

An Appeal to the Humanity of Southern People.

Lee Camp, No. 1.
Southern Cross Brotherhood.

RICHMOND, VA., July, 1872.

Our order is composed of Confederate Soldiers alone, who had an unblemished record during the war. Its objects are,
to perpetuate the memory and heroism of our fallen comrades, to aid the families of our former brethren in arms who need assistance, and to try and preserve the truth and purity of history.

We are now specially engaged in the sacred duty of raising funds to assist Hollywood Memorial Association in removing the remains of our noble dead from Gettysburg and other points where they are neglected and mistreated, to Hollywood Cemetery near this city, where, through the unflinching efforts of our ladies, an honorable resting-place is provided, and an enduring monument erected to their memory;

and where, protected and cared for,
they can yearly receive the honor bestowed on our "Memorial Day," in decorating their graves with flowers.

There are yet at Gettysburg the remains of near one hundred thousand bodies;
they are from nearly all the States; and when we say, in some instances, the heartless wretches of the vicinity where they fell and lie are ploughing their bones about as if they were dogs, it is enough to make the blood of decent humanity boil, and the pocket-of all who are not false to feeling—false to principle—false to a cause once dear-ought to remove these heroes from such indignity and inhumanity.

Some of these men are from your State; some of them may have been your dear friends or your own kin; all of them lost their lives in your defence.

You professed to love them while living; you professed to love the cause for which they died. Shall their remains be dishonored when they lost their lives for you? Will you not aid us to remove them to a safe and sacred spot, where the warm, noble hearts and gentle care of Virginia women can watch over them? Let us whatever hands this appeal falls, we beg you to aid us in this cause,
in which our whole soul is enlisted.

Ask your friends to aid you. Do not hesitate because you cannot give much;
remember, as drops make an ocean, so many small contributions will make a goodly sum.

Can't you spare a day or so to canvass specially for this purpose?

It is necessary to raise several thousand dollars to accomplish our purpose,
but we do not hesitate to undertake it,
as we cannot think Southern people will close their hearts and pockets to so sacred an appeal.

Remit all contributions to W. C. Carrington, care Piedmont and Arlington
Life Insurance Company, Richmond, Va., he being Chairman of Committee.

Please send promptly; give as liberally as you can, but give something, and let us bring our brothers away from hostile hands and Northern soil.

THE GOLDEN AGE'S LIFE-SIZE POR-TRAIT OF HORACE GREELEY.—The Golden Age has published a beautiful portrait of Horace Greeley, life-size head and bust, executed in fine litho-graphic style, suitable for hanging on the wall of a parlor, library, or clubroom, and constituting altogether the best likeness of Mr. Greeley which has been prepared for popular circulation. The original was a photograph from life, taken by Pearsall, in Brooklyn, drawn on stone by Baker, of Boston, and lithographed by Armstrong, of that city. The head is exactly the size of life, showing how big the brain must be that dwells within it. The expression is pleasing. The white hair is soft and silky. The spectacles have a wise look. The beard ripples over the collar with a graceful curve. The dress is not disheveled. The coat is of black brocade cloth, such as Mr. Greeley generally wears. The picture is thoroughly characteristic of the man, and an admirable success—especially gratifying to Mr. Greeley's intimate friends.

All persons who have a hearty liking

for the Chappagda candidate ought to have this likeness of him in his best mood. Any one can obtain it by re-mitting one dollar, in return for which the portrait will be mailed on a roller postpaid to any address within the United States, together with a copy of The Golden Age, gratis, from now till the election, November 5th. Any person who is already a subscriber to The Golden Age, and who will now renew his subscription, and will at the same time procure a new subscriber, shall receive a copy of the picture; and the new subscriber shall receive it likewise.

The Golden Age is a political and literary journal, devoted to the discussion of all current topics, and means to do the best it can between now and autumn
to elect an Honest Statesman to the Presidency of the United States.

The price of subscription is three dollars a year, or one dollar from now until election. The picture is sent to all new subscribers, whether for the year or the campaign. Such a paper and such a picture have never before been offered to the public at such a price.

Address The Golden Age, Box 2848,
New York City.

Subscriptions received until after the election at the Yarrowburgh House.

ground—it is one of the most central points
in the city, being not more than four hun-

The hotel building is three stories high

three equal installments, bearing interest, at six per cent, to be paid on the 1st day of the day of sale; the first of the credit instal-

one good surety to insure the payment of the purchase money; and so long as any part of the purchase money remains un-

JOINT APPOINTMENTS OF HON. S. H. ROGERS AND MAJ. WM. A. SMITH.

JOHNSTON COUNTY.
O'Neal, Wednesday, July 31st.

MASS MEETING AT COMPANY SHOPS.

The Democrats and Conservatives are making immense preparations for the grand Mass meeting and Barbecue at Company Shops, on Wednesday the 31st of August.

Carl Schurz, Senators Tipton, Doolittle and Ransom, Gov. Vance, Judge Merrimon and other eminent speakers have been invited to attend.

This will be one of the largest meetings ever held in the State.

It will be under the management of Capt. E. S. Parker, Chairman of the County Executive Committee of Alamance.

If every County Executive Committee had such a Chairman as Parker, we would elect Merrimon by an overwhelming majority.

In every true son of North Carolina, will stand at the post of duty and of honor, the sun-light of a grand and glorious victory will dawn upon the State on next Thursday. The dark night of Radicalism will break away and the stars of a noble Democratic triumph will peal in acclamations of rejoicing from one end of the State to the other.

THE KIRK WAR RESUMED!

The last Era, the Radical organ of North Carolina, contains the following:

INDICTED FOR MURDER.—There are forty men in Sampson county, indicted in the Federal Court for murder.

At the last term of this Court, several hundred indictments were found against men for Ku-Kluxing in Harnett, Catawba, Lincoln, Moore, Cleveland and Sampson. Capases have been issued, and U. S. Marshals are now making arrests in some, if not all these counties.

On the eve of the election, the Kirk war has been renewed upon the people of North Carolina.

The telegraph informed us a few days since, that one thousand blank warrants of arrest had been sent to the United States Marshal in North Carolina.

The Era informs us that United States Marshals are now making arrests.

If men in the counties of Harnett, Cleveland, Moore, Catawba, Lincoln and Sampson have violated the law, we would not have them shielded from punishment.

But why this wholesale arrest of citizens just before the election?

Is it not for the purpose of intimidation? Is it not to prevent a free and fair election? Why not wait until after the election to make the arrests, if the action of the United States Marshal was not intended for political effect?

We understand this system of terrorism is re-acting upon the Radicals. We have information from Sampson county, where a Deputy United States Marshal has been sent, that Republicans are denouncing the conduct of the government, and declare they will not vote with a party that countenances and approves such official outrages.

Like the Kirk war of 1870, this fresh assault upon the liberties of the people will seriously damage the Radical party, and make our victory to-morrow the more complete and the more brilliant.

Threats and intimidation have no terrors for brave men and patriots who will do their duty to their country, under all circumstances.

We call upon the people everywhere to resist this insult and indignity to the principles of free Government by coming to the ballot-box to-morrow, and consign Caldwell and his party to overwhelming and irrevocable defeat.

THE KIRK WAR IS AGAIN UPON US.

Will reasonable, sensible men in the Republican party approve of the conduct of the Government in arresting men in North Carolina, in the present excited state of the public mind, and on the eve of an important election?

It is too apparent to every one why the Marshals have waited until the day of election to issue their warrants of arrest.

We call upon our friends to act calmly and discreetly. Submit to present wrong, rather than imperil the cause for which we are earnestly contending. Be prudent and so act as to put to shame your persecutors and aggressors.

Maintain your rights firmly, but give no cause of provocation—no excuse for harsh measures.

Let us submit as in 1870, and on to-morrow we will win as great and glorious a victory as we did when Kirk warred upon the liberties of the people.

A VOTE FOR CALDWELL IS A VOTE FOR THE ENDORSEMENT OF ALL THE FRAUDS, CORRUPTIONS AND USURPATIONS OF THE RADICAL PARTY.

FRAUD.

We have accounts of fraud practiced by the Radicals in the matter of registration in several adjoining counties.

Col. J. J. Young, a leading Republican, has information that over nine hundred names have been challenged at Kinston, Lenoir county.

There should be no capricious challenging by our friends. Every man, white or black in North Carolina, who is entitled to a vote, should be allowed to cast his ballot without molestation or hindrance.

But no suspicious persons, no strangers, no new comers, should be permitted to vote without first showing the right to do so.

The Salisbury Tribune says that it is reported the Radicals have imported sixty or seventy colored voters at the Salisbury Township, from South Carolina and Virginia.

The Goldsboro Messenger learns from good authority that the Radicals of Wayne and adjoining counties are now engaged in bringing in negroes from South Carolina and elsewhere for the purpose of voting them.

We have before stated that Virginia negroes had already reached Halifax in large numbers. In Littleton Township, in that county, two hundred and twenty-nine strange names were challenged on Saturday.

Our friends cannot be too vigilant. Let every man, Radical as well as Democrat, who ought to vote do so; but see to it that no illegal vote is cast.

Let there be no frauds!

The Radical candidate for Governor wants the great writ of Habeas Corpus suspended in the South. This is putting the military over the civil law. This is depriving freemen of the right of trial by jury.

Can you vote for Caldwell?

GREAT DAY IN CHARLOTTE.

Monday was a great day in Charlotte. We learn from a gentleman who was present, that there were over five thousand persons in attendance.

Threats were made by a Radical negro to break up the speaking, and in the midst of Senator Schurz's speech, a house directly in front of the meeting was set on fire and for a few moments interrupted the speaker.

The negro who made the threats escaped, but enough is known to fasten the crime upon him beyond any doubt. Senator Schurz made a great speech and was vociferously cheered. He is doing a great work in this State.

Gov. Walker's effort at Charlotte is spoken of in the highest terms.

Our friends in the Charlotte section claim the State for Merrimon by from ten to twenty thousand majority.

Schurz spoke at Concord yesterday, and will speak at Company Shops to-day.

ILLEGAL REGISTRATION.

Numbers of instances of illegal registration, by negroes, have been detected in this city.

Some negroes have registered twice, some three and some four times! Look out for frauds everywhere!

REMEMBER ROGERS.

Let not our Democratic friends forget to work for Sion H. Rogers to-morrow. Col. Rogers has been making a splendid canvass. He has been laboring diligently in every County in the District.

He should receive every Democratic vote—without exception.

Let us work to give him a rousing majority.

Col. Rogers has been misrepresented and assailed. But the people know him too well for us to make any defence or vindication of his character.

He is a true man—a gentleman of integrity and ability, and makes us a good and faithful Representative.

Do not fail to vote for him.

The Radical Convention that nominated Caldwell endorsed all that was done under Governor Holden's Administration.

THE ATTACK UPON METHODISTS BY DR. CLOSS' LETTER.

The letter of Dr. Closs, published in the Wilmington Journal of the 28th came to hand too late for publication in Tuesday's issue. It will be found in our paper this morning.

The Wilmington Journal commenting upon Dr. Closs' letter says:

"The following letter from the venerable William Closs, D. D., to Hon. A. M. Waddell, explains itself. We shall not say anything about the character of the Rev. William Closs. The people of North Carolina trusted and loved and honored him years before we were born. Nor have we either time or space, at this late hour, for comment on the gross insult and wanton outrage thus publicly put upon that intelligent, patriotic and Christian class of our fellow-citizens who belong to the Methodist Church. The Ministers and members of the Methodist Church South, need neither defence nor apology. Strong in the consciousness of good deeds and pure intentions, they may proudly point to their record and defy the malice and slander that assail them. But this unprovoked assault of Colonel Hargrove was not directed against the Methodist Church alone. It was far broader and more sweeping in its character."

The Democratic Legislature in one year saved over four hundred thousand dollars in the annual expenses of the Government.

LET US HAVE A FAIR ELECTION.

We desire a fair election.

We can beat the Radicals badly, if there is no fraud practiced.

That there has been much fraudulent voting heretofore in North Carolina, there can be no doubt.

In the county of Halifax alone, the negroes have frequently out-voted their registered strength by several hundred.

We ask, we demand that all such frauds be stopped.

Heretofore our friends have taken no pains to purge the ballot-boxes of illegal votes by the Radicals. We have reason to believe that this evil will, to some extent, be remedied at the present election.

We repeat, we want a fair and honest election.

If we have such an one, we have no fears of the result.

REPUBLICANS DECLARING FOR GREELEY.

Besides Jennings Pigott, Esq., a prominent and influential Republican in Eastern Carolina, Judge Greene, of New Bern, has also given in his adhesion to the Greeley movement.

John Ragland, formerly a Radical member of the Legislature from Granville county, has been making Greeley speeches for some months.

James T. Harris, Republican member of the present House of Representatives, from Franklin County, acted as a Marshal in the grand Greeley Mass meeting in this City on the 16th inst.

Rev. Mr. Tupper, pastor of a colored Church in this City, is also said to favor Greeley's claims.

A VOTE for the Radical party is a vote for crime, cruelty, dishonesty, lawlessness and military despotism.

TO-MORROW!

To-morrow will be an eventful day in the history of North Carolina.

Upon its results, will depend the weal or woe of North Carolina.

Our people are aroused to a degree we have never before witnessed.

If our reports are reliable, we are destined to elect A. S. Merrimon our next Governor by a noble majority.

Every indication points in that direction.

Victory will surely perch upon our banners to-morrow, unless we are wofully deceived.

THE KU KLUX WAR HAS BEEN RESUMED. THE CITIZENS OF THE STATE ARE BEING ARRESTED ON THE EVE OF THE ELECTION BY DEPUTY UNITED STATES MARSHALS.

THE RALEIGH ERA SAYS THAT THE MARSHALS UNITED STATES ARE NOW ARRESTING CITIZENS IN SEVERAL COUNTIES IN NORTH CAROLINA.

(From the Goldsboro Messenger.)

To Your Tent, O! Democrats!

For upwards of four years, we have worn the galling chains of heartless despotism. Beggars upheld by bayonets have been our masters. Our State is ruined. The deluge of Radicalism has swept away every institution hallowed by time and has wantonly desecrated the very memory of our ancestors.

The constitution has been blotted out in more than one important particular, and our State government has been converted into a political machine.

Our University, once among those of greatest renown in the country, has been closed. A factious cabal, calling themselves the executive and judiciary, have usurped their power and converted their responsibilities into political cess pools, for the breeding and propagation of Radical converts, and to satisfy the voracious appetite of Radical office-seekers.

Such and worse is the situation at present, but the worst has not yet come, if this surging billow of barbarous fanaticism is not deprived of its force and hurled from power. By the election of Merrimon and Hughes, and a majority of Conservatives to the Legislature, on Thursday next, we may hope for deliverance. For that happy consummation the prospects are bright.

All over the State our people are aroused. They are determined to de-throne Caldwell's corrupt administration. To the citizens of this immediate section we would appeal. Do your duty! Let every voter's name be duly registered, that our entire strength may be voted. Let personal prejudices be overlooked for once, and no matter how objectionable, personally, a candidate may be to you, remember that you vote for him as the nominee of your great party, representing its principles. Vote the entire ticket. Your one vote withheld may elect a radical in the place of a good Democrat.

ONE HUNDRED AND EIGHTY FIVE NAMES HAVE BEEN CHALLENGED IN ONE TOWNSHIP IN WAKE COUNTY FOR ILLEGAL REGISTRATION.

(From the Salisbury Tribune.)

Hon. D. M. Barringer.

The Democratic Conservative party of the State acted wisely and judiciously when it appointed this deservedly popular and able gentleman Chairman of its Executive Committee. He has, with the statesmanship of a Bismarck, brought all his forces into complete marsh array. He has issued his orders for the great civil battle to commence at sunrise on August 1st, 1872, and to be fought earnestly, confidently, and with unflinching aim until the setting sun, when he assures us, and rightly too, that our enemies will be put not only hors de combat, but utterly to flight.

Long may D. M. Barringer live to enjoy the beneficent fruits of his and the people's great victory, so admirably and skillfully planned by his great brain.

MORE CONFEDERATE DOCUMENTS FOR SALE.—Since the sale of the Confederate archives to the Government, officials here have received numerous offers to sell other secret and alleged valuable documents. The Congressional Republican Committee, who have just issued the Thompson letter, will soon put forth another one, from some one of the ex-Confederate officials, which is said to be more important and startling. It will thus be noticed that these documents are not intended for political effect falls to the ground, for they are made public at Government expense by the political committee representing the administration. THE COAL PANIC IN ENGLAND.—The whole manufacturing industry of England is just now in the most intense excitement, owing to the unprecedented rise in the price of coal. All through the present year coal has been rising rapidly in price in England until it is now between 60 and 100 per cent, dearer than it was twelve months ago, and is constantly on the rise. Besides, the many trades directly affected, coal is an element entering so essentially into almost every production that it is scarcely possible to think of any important industry the conditions of which may not be almost vitally changed by the present state of affairs.—Exchange.

We have made much of it, in addition to the usual household work, over one hundred garments, large and small, including coats, dresses, and skirts, some of which were heavily trimmed, two of the dresses containing from 100 to 125 yards of ticking and so on. Correspondence of the Raleigh Daily News.

The Southwest.

GALVESTON, July 20, 1872.

Ho, for the southwest—adieu to Raleigh, and we took the Charlotte train.

Our first stop was at Atlanta, when I say our I mean my companion and self, and do not mean to intrude on the editorial prerogative, the plural pronoun our. I had seen this as a "wooden village" many years ago, I now found it a growing and enterprising city of brick and mortar. The Kimball House, at which we stopped, would be creditable in magnitude, as a first class Broadway hotel. It is said to have cost six hundred thousand to build it. Some one failed, and in its incomplete condition its entire capacity is not known.

Here we found Northern ice selling at one and a half cents per pound. But the genius of invention is about to flank the great Northern ice army. Ice is now manufactured at Atlanta and sold at one and a half cents a pound, the same price of the Northern ice—Great hyperborean—when will wonders cease?

At night we took the train for Montgomery, and have pleasant memories of the unbroken slumber in the Pullman sleeping car. That oblivious sleep settled us in favor of Pulman. Morpheus has never given us a sweeter lull, under any circumstances. Passing Mobile, we next stopped at New Orleans. At this season of the year the city is dull. It seems to be a general rest-time, preparatory to the great avalanche of fall and winter trade. The season here was about a month in advance of that of North Carolina, and green corn, peaches, cantelopes and watermelons were abundant by the middle of June. Leaving New Orleans by the Morgan line of railroad, we were taken through fields of corn and sugarcane, to the Gulf of Mexico. Decaying negro shanties, and dilapidated sugar mills were constant reminders of the nineteenth century. The Gulf reached, we took the steamer and arrived the next day, in Galveston, making the trip in twenty-four hours, from New Orleans. And here we are in the great State of Texas, an empire of itself. Many definitions are given of the name of Texas or Texas—probably the one by Don Onis, Spanish Minister, in a correspondence with John Quincy Adams, Secretary of State, is the correct one. In contending for the Spanish right to the country, based on the priority of discovery, the Don calls attention to the Spanish having met a tribe of Indians in the vicinity of Matagorda Bay, who addressed them as Texas or friends. Hence the meaning of Texas, a land of friends. Alas! human weakness and wickedness has perverted the beautiful meaning, like Grant's "let us have peace." It was only a name. Vengeance, venom and blood followed the mellifluous words of peace.

Galveston is beautifully situated on the east end of an oblong island, of the same name, about twenty-five miles long. It has a population of twelve or fifteen thousand. It is handsomely laid off with broad streets. The strong breeze from the gulf is unfavorable to the growth of trees. But ladies in a northern clime, who delight in exotics would be charmed; the grape jessamine, the fig, the orange, the orange and the pomegranate beautify and adorn the yards. The almost perpendicular rays of the sun, inspire great admiration for the ice king, but in the shade like the grape, the native are like the delicate draw down that indispensable mosquito net, open wide the windows, listen at the lulling Niagara roar of the gulf as it beats the shore, and fanned by a sweet breeze, pass away into dream-land and sleep, and sleep, and sleep! Happily!

We find the North Carolinian wherever we go. Here we met Col. DeWitt Stone and family, formerly of Louisville. To hear the Col. and his pleasant wife dwell with fond memories of the old State, draws a native "feeling" and tenderly near to help recall the reminiscences of "other days. The Colonel's friends will be happy to learn that he is doing a prosperous commission business, is but little changed in personal appearance, and is as serene as a morning glory.

Hon. Carl Schurz's Charge Against Grant—His Letter.

The New York Herald has the following letter from Hon. Carl Schurz in regard to his charge against President Grant.

LETTER FROM CARL SCHURZ.

To the Editor of the Herald:—

Sir—The statement I made in my speech at St. Louis concerning the patronage in connection with the St. Domingo business has been represented as incorrect in a despatch of the Associated Press, apparently inspired by the President himself. It is now proper that I should give my authority for what I said. The letter quoted in my speech as coming from the gentleman who had with me the conversation referred to, was addressed to me by General Alfred Pleasanton, late Commissioner of Internal Revenue. It was written in reply to a note from me, of the contents of which I have a memorandum, which reads as follows:

Ask Pl. whether he remembers the conversation he had with me concerning St. Domingo, in which he said that if I would support the President I could have all the patronage I wanted. And ask him whether he was authorized by the President to say so.

General Pleasanton's letter in reply to this is quoted in my speech, and is as follows:

NEW YORK, Jan 25, 1872.

DEAR GENERAL:—

Regarding the conversation you refer to in your note, I remember it was with the knowledge and consent, and after I had a conversation with him, (the President) that I called upon you and had the conversation you spoke of. My impression at this time is, that the President desired your support for his St. Domingo scheme, and wished to be on such terms with you that your support could be obtained. I do not now remember any particular language used at my interview with the President, and would not hazard doing him an injustice by attempting to quote from memory, but the impression made upon my mind by the interview was fixed and distinct.

Truly yours, in haste,

A. PLEASANTON.

I have since received from General Pleasanton the following note:

NEW YORK, July 25, 1872.

Dear General—Of course I have no objection to your giving my name to the public. In explanation of the facts, I would say that, being a friend of the President as well as of yourself, I desired you should be on good terms, and you should understand that there was no personal feeling in the way of relations mutually satisfactory. Your statement is correct that the President wanted your support for his St. Domingo scheme, and that you could have had the patronage of the government for giving it. That was the distinct impression the President's conversation made upon my mind, and I communicated it to you at the time. If the President positively denies having had any such conversation I regret it. I may console myself with the reflection that this is the first time that any statement of mine has been questioned, while the President has had occasion before this to distrust the accuracy of his recollections.

Truly yours,

A. PLEASANTON.

In justice to General Pleasanton I must add that the drift of what he said to me is correctly stated in his note. When he found that I had conscientious objections to the St. Domingo scheme he urged no further to support it. He desired me to go and see the President, to which I replied, that if the President wanted to speak with me on public business, I should consider it my official duty as a Senator to respond to a note from him requesting me to call. And that was the end of it. My recollection is that General Pleasanton intimated to me at the time that he spoke with the knowledge and consent of the President. I inquired about it afterward in writing, for the purpose of either strengthening or correcting my impression concerning that fact.

Although the President recently descended in an interview with a Herald reporter to say that my opposition was owing to an unsatisfied desire for patronage, or words to that effect, I had, as will not now be denied, some excellent reasons to think that if I wanted patronage I had a very good chance to obtain it at the expense of my convictions of duty.

Truly yours,

C. SCHURZ.

The Radical Candidate for Attorney General Denounces the Ministers of the Methodist Church—Dr. Closs's Letter.

CLINTON, SAMPTON COUNTY, N. C., July 16th, 1872.

Hon. A. M. WADDELL—

Dear Sir:—Yours of the 8th inst. has just been received. You state, that while in Duplin county you were informed that Mr. T. L. Hargrove, in his speech at Magnolia, made assertions of an offensive character in reference to the ministers and members of the Church to which I belong; and you enquire whether or not you were correctly informed?

I am informed that a perverted statement of the occurrence to which you refer has been published in some of the Republican papers, and allusions to it have recently been made by the religious press. I have no hesitation in giving the facts as they occurred.

It may be proper here to state, that from early manhood to the opening of the war, I was politically a Whig, and took as much interest in public affairs as private citizens usually take. I ignored the assertion so often made by demagogues, that a Minister of the Gospel loses his citizenship by becoming a Minister. Since the war I belong to no political party. I am not a Democrat, and I certainly am no Republican. If I have heard political speech since the war, until I heard Col. Hargrove at Magnolia, I was present by accident or upon business unconnected with politics.

cal matters. The day Col. Hargrove spoke at Magnolia, I happened to reach home. At one time I had been the Pastor of his father and family; and I felt as the Colonel was at my home, some act of courtesy was due from me to him. Prompted by that consideration alone, I heard his speech. Towards the close of it he turned and addressing himself directly to me, made a violent attack on Ministers, in which he charged, that before the war they were all secessionists; that they made war speeches and brought on the war; induced others to go into it, and then shirked it themselves. I quietly but promptly repelled the assault. He made no reply, but then made a violent assault upon the Methodist Church, South, stating that he knew me to be a leading Minister of that Church, and that she was responsible for the war and its consequences—that the Methodist Church brought on secession, and that brought on the war. I promptly, but briefly, replied to the charge. At this time Mr. Sherrard, of Wayne county, (who, I believe holds some office, or is a candidate for something,) came to the aid of Colonel Hargrove, by making a personal attack upon Dr. Closs. Both of us replied to Mr. Sherrard. He and Dr. Deems are both known to the citizens of Duplin, which rendered a reply unnecessary. The Colonel soon closed, and Mr. Sherrard also closed about the same time. A negro then mounted the rostrum, poured out a glass from the pitcher with which Colonel Hargrove had drunk quite freely, swallowed down about half of it, and poured the remainder back into the pitcher, and then took his seat by the side of the Governor. The Governor left. Hargrove, the negro and Sherrard remained. I will add that nothing had occurred to provoke the attack either on the ministers or the Methodist Church. I have not seen the account of this affair as given in the Republican papers, but have been told by a friend that they represent the Colonel as giving it to me so heavily that I left. That is a mistake. I stayed until after the Governor left, and rode thirteen miles the next day to the place at which the Colonel was to speak, and sat immediately in front of him during his entire speech, to let him know that if he chose to repeat the attack, either on the ministers or the Methodist Church, that I was on hand. He did not repeat the attack on either. The public will judge which man had gotten enough of it.

I will close by saying that some of my warmest personal friends belong to the Republican party; that I was present as an act of courtesy, which I thought due to Colonel Hargrove, from kind relations that had for years existed between myself and his father and family; that I did not know that a Minister of the Gospel could not be present at a Republican meeting without being personally insulted; that when the entire Christian ministry was assailed in my presence, they could not expect me to do less than repel the unprovoked assault. But I assure them that they have no need to feel concern for any one in connection with this matter but Colonel Hargrove, their candidate for Attorney General; that the thousands of Ministers of all denominations who were so wantonly assailed by him, and the tens of thousands of Methodists will, on the first Thursday in August, remember his attack. Even the negroes who heard him told me they would not vote for a man who talked about preachers like that man talked.

Yours, with high regard,

WM. CLOSS.
